Accept short forms (Skiles, Miami, Gervin or the Iceman, Clyde, Vancouver, Detroit, Breen, Real). Question 1: closest to 118 wins. Question 8: accept New Orleans or the Pelicans, not just Hornets.

BIG NIGHTS

1. 118
   Michael Jordan is second with 31. Harden went 15-of-26 from the field and 14-of-14 at the line in Cleveland's 128-119 win.
2. Scott Skiles
   Skiles' Magic won 155-116. Giddey also had 23 points and 14 rebounds, but Denver won 151-145 in overtime.
3. Miami Heat
   Herro was the first Heat player to win the award. His 50 came in a 132-129 loss at Philadelphia, and Milwaukee snapped its skid on Nov. 23 at Toronto.

MILESTONES AND STREAKS

4. George Gervin
   Gervin's five include a 63-point game in 1978. Wembanyama shot 20-of-29 with 18 rebounds and five blocks as San Antonio won 114-91.
5. Walt Frazier
   Hart had 10 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists, and Karl-Anthony Towns added 30 and 13 as New York beat Indiana 113-106 for its fifth straight win.
6. Vancouver
   The old record of seven straight road wins was set in 2010. The run ended at eight with a 104-95 loss at Minnesota on Nov. 21.
7. Detroit Pistons
   Cade Cunningham scored 27 and Daniss Jenkins 25. San Antonio had not scored fewer than 104 points in a game all season.

AROUND THE LEAGUE

8. New Orleans Hornets
   The New Orleans Hornets became the Pelicans in 2013. Nikola Jokic was West Player of the Week, averaging 28.8 points, 12.0 rebounds and 9.5 assists.
9. Mike Breen
   New York led by 26 in the first half, but Portland took its first lead, 96-94, with 3.4 seconds left. Jalen Brunson scored 30, 19 in the first quarter.
10. Real Madrid
    Doncic won EuroLeague MVP and the title with Real Madrid in 2018, beating Fenerbahce in the final. Keyonte George had 30 points and 10 assists for the Jazz.
