THURSDAY NIGHT AND LONDON

1. Deshaun Watson set up Andre Szmyt's 56-yard field goal with 10 seconds left to beat Pittsburgh 27-24 on Thursday, his third straight game-winning drive. Who is the only other Browns QB to do that since the 1970 merger?

ANSWER _____

2. Jonathan Taylor ran for two TDs in the Colts' 30-13 win over Washington in London, becoming the NFL's career rushing leader in international games. In which city did he run for an international-record 244 yards last season?

ANSWER _____

EARLY SUNDAY

3. Josh Allen's 2-yard TD run against New England was his 88th touchdown from scrimmage, breaking a Bills record he had shared with two Hall of Famers. One is Thurman Thomas. Who is the other?

ANSWER _____

4. CeeDee Lamb caught the winning 12-yard TD with 40 seconds left as Dallas beat Houston 34-30, finishing with 189 yards and the most catches ever by a Cowboys wide receiver. How many passes did he catch?

ANSWER _____

5. Minkah Fitzpatrick's interception of Tyson Bagent in Chicago ended the Jets' NFL-record interception drought, one that covered their entire 2025 season. How many straight games had it lasted?

ANSWER _____

6. Giants rookie Arvell Reese, the No. 5 pick, had his first career interception in a 36-24 win over Arizona as the 1986 champions were honored. Which star of that team, the 1986 AP NFL MVP, was there to watch?

ANSWER _____

UNBEATEN AND WINLESS

7. Minnesota beat Miami 15-10 on five Will Reichard field goals and is 4-0 despite scoring no touchdowns in two of those wins. Per NFL Research, only one other franchise has done that, in 1922 and 1923. Which one?

ANSWER _____

Accept obvious short forms (Sipe, Reed, LT, Tim Brown, McCaffrey, the Chargers). Question 7: take the Cardinals, Chicago Cardinals or Arizona Cardinals (same franchise). Questions 4 and 5 need the exact number.

THURSDAY NIGHT AND LONDON

1. Brian Sipe

Sipe was the 1980 NFL MVP. Cleveland is 3-1 for the first time since 2021 and has won eight straight Thursday night games, the NFL's longest active streak.

2. Berlin

Taylor's 244 yards and three TDs came in an overtime win over Atlanta in Berlin. He now has 408 rushing yards and six rushing TDs in international games, both NFL records.

EARLY SUNDAY

3. Andre Reed

Reed and Thomas each scored 87 for Buffalo. Allen still lost 29-26 on Drake Maye's late TD pass to Efton Chism III, a one-handed catch with 1:50 left, the Bills' first loss at their new Highmark Stadium.

4. 17 catches

Only tight end Jason Witten, with 18 against the Giants in 2012, has caught more in a game for Dallas. Lamb also passed fellow No. 88 Drew Pearson for fourth on the team's career receiving yards list.

5. 20 games

The 2025 Jets were the first team to go a full season without an interception since the stat was first tracked in 1933. The Bears still won 23-12 as Bagent threw for a career-high 268 yards.

6. Lawrence Taylor

Taylor and Alan Page (1971) are the only defensive players ever named AP NFL MVP. Deonte Banks sealed the win with a 98-yard pick-six on the final play, and the 3-1 Giants lead the NFC East.

UNBEATEN AND WINLESS

7. Chicago Cardinals (now the Arizona Cardinals)

The Vikings' other TD-less win was 9-3 at Chicago, and Reichard has made 31 straight field goals, the NFL's longest active streak.

8. Tim Brown

Brown is a Raiders legend, and Kelce passed him on the Raiders' home field. Kelce (1,096) is five catches behind Cris Carter for sixth, and the 4-0 Chiefs handed the Raiders their first loss.

9. Chargers

The 1992 San Diego Chargers got their first win 17-6 over Seattle on Oct. 4, 1992, then won the AFC West at 11-5. This year's Chargers fell to 0-4 with a 30-23 loss at Seattle on Oct. 4.

SUNDAY NIGHT

10. Christian McCaffrey

McCaffrey caught 15 against the Colts in 2019. McMillan also fell 9 yards short of Steve Smith Sr.'s team record of 201, and Bryce Young's nine TD passes are a Panthers record through four games.
